

20 Trees for Your Garden

| Botanical Name | Common Name | Description | Qualities | Approx. Height X Width |
|--------------------------------------|--------------------------|---|---|--|
| Acacia binervia | "Coastal Myall" | fast growing bushy silver-leaved tree | golden rods of wattle flowers in spring | 8-10m x 5m |
| Acacia fimbriata | "Fringed Wattle" | semi-weeping small tree | masses of yellow flowers in spring | 5m x 3-4m |
| Agonis flexuosa | "Willow Myrtle" | attractive hardy tree with weeping foliage | pepper mint scented leaves & small white flowers | 8-10m x 5-10m |
| Backhousia citriodora | "Lemon Myrtle" | bushy tree with lemon scented foliage used in cooking | green-yellow flowers | 3m+ x 2-3m |
| Banksia integrifolia | "Coast Banksia" | fast growing bushy small tree | bird-attractive yellow flowers much of year | 5+m x 4-6m |
| Brachychiton acerifolium | "Illawarra Flame Tree" | partly deciduous tree from East Coast rainforest | spectacular orange-red flowers late spring to summer | 10 x 6m |
| Buckinghamia celcissima | "Ivory Curl Tree" | bushy tree with showy red new growth | spectacular cream flowers in summer/autumn | 4-5m x 3m |
| Callistemon salignus | "Willow Bottlebrush" | very reliable dense tree with brilliant pink new growth | cream/yellow bottlebrushes spring & autumn | 5-8m x 3-4m |
| Ceratopetalum gummiferum | "Christmas Bush" | spectacular-flowering small tree | white flowers age to the brilliant red used as a cut flower | 5m x 1.5m |
| Elaeocarpus reticulatus | 'Prima Donna' | excellent form of the narrow bushy tree, the Blueberry Ash | fringed pink flowers in spring | 8m x 3m |
| Eucalyptus citriodora | "Lemon-Scented Gum" | tall slender tree, with lovely smooth white trunk | bird-attractive flowers, scented leaves, open canopy | 15+m x 4-6m |
| Eucalyptus leucoxylon 'Dwarf' | | hardy small to medium gum tree | flowers, usually reddish-pink, when tree is only a few years old | 5-8m x 4-6m |
| Eucalyptus sideroxylon | "Mugga Ironbark" | striking black ironbark | bird-attractive flowers, grey leaves | 10-25m |
| Eucalyptus | 'Summer Red' | grafted hybrid flowering gum | flowers young with bird-attractive crimson red flowers | 5m x 3m |
| Eucalyptus | 'Summer Beauty' | grafted hybrid flowering gum | bright pink flowers through the warm months | 5m x 3m |
| Hymenosporum flavum | "Native Frangipani" | fast-growing narrow tree | scented cream to yellow flowers in spring | 5-8m x 4m |
| Leptospermum petersonii | "Lemon-Scented Tea Tree" | hardy, adaptable, fast-growing small tree | white flowers in summer | 3-4m x 3m |
| Stenocarpus sinuatus | "Firewheel Tree" | outstanding ornamental, also useful as an indoor plant when young | brilliant display of large red bird-attractive flower clusters in summer/autumn | up to 30m - usually much less in cultivation |
| Syzygium luehmanni | "Riberry" | also known as "Small Leaved Lilly Pilly" | edible red fruit & bright pink new growth | usually 7-10m |
| Tristaniopsis laurina | "Water Gum" | compact with attractive foliage | bright yellow flowers in summer | 6m x 4m |

Mark Ferrington, Assoc. Diploma Horticulture, M.A. I. H.

mobile: 043 828 4448

email: mark@australian-natives.com.au